Daniel Mintz
MAD RIVER UNION

HUMBOLDT – Humboldt County’s public safety services and roads will continue their current levels of tax funding, as voting for local and state ballot measures supported them.

The locally-advanced Measure O, which continues a half-cent sales tax for public safety services, was approved by voters while the statewide Proposition 6, which aimed to repeal sources of road improvement funding, was rejected in the Nov. 6 election.

Measure O extends the Measure Z sales tax, which would have ended in 2020 had voters not approved its renewal. The newly-approved replacement measure has no sunset date and can only be discontinued through another ballot measure process.

The county’s Final Election Night Report showed 72 percent support for Measure O.

It wasn’t a surprise, as county-sponsored polling done last summer predicted the win.

The voter approval will maintain what is described as an essential means of funding fire protection, sheriff’s patrols, ambulance services, children’s mental health and abuse response, emergency communications and road repairs.

According to county staff reports, Measure Z has yielded almost $34 million for over 70 public safety projects since its implementation in 2015. The current fiscal year will see Measure Z allocation of $12.8 million, funding 24 more projects.

Proposition 6 sought to repeal the 2017 increases in the state’s gas tax and vehicle registration fees set forth in Senate Bill 1.

The tax and fee revenue is being used to upgrade and maintain state and local trans-

Council incumbents rehired as statue decision is affirmed by voters

Kevin L. Hoover
MAD RIVER UNION

ARCATA – Arcata’s mayor and vice mayor glided to victory Tuesday night, ensuring them four more years on the City Council. Adding to the good news for Mayor Sofia Pereira and Vice Mayor Brett Watson was the voters’ decisive ratification of their Feb. 21 decision to remove the statue of William McKinley from the Plaza.

Of the three candidates for Arcata City Council, Pereira was the most popular, with 2,548 votes. Watson collected 2,113 votes, while Valerie Rose-Campbell took 1,059 votes.

“Thank you to the voters of Arcata for re-electing me to the Arcata City Council. I’m committed in my second term to keep working on housing, addressing climate change, and making Arcata a safe and inclusive community for all of our residents,” Pereira said. “I look forward to serving our great community another four years.”

“I’m incredibly grateful for the overwhelming support I’ve received from the community,” Watson said. “I’m optimistic about the outcome and I look forward to continuing to serve the people of Arcata.”

Said Valerie Rose-Campbell, “This local election we were able to make our voices heard for what matters most, Measure K and M. Through campaigning, I was able to see my community and the resilience and strength we bring to how we support each other and ourselves every day. I look forward to continue to grow with my community.”

The other politician on the ballot, William McKinley, was soundly defeated with Arcata voters’ overwhelming rejection of Measure M. The ballot initiative, which would have overridden the City Council’s Feb. 21 decision to remove the Plaza statue, was defeated, 2,436 to 1,483.

The measure actually gained fewer votes than the 1,769 initial signatures on the petition to place it on the ballot, though the final tally of verified signatures was 1,317, which was only 166 fewer than the total number of votes for keeping the statue.

City Councilmember Michael Winkler, the sole dissenting vote on Feb. 21, who later pursued the petition drive to place Measure M on the ballot and overturn the council’s decision, was stoic about the defeat.

“The citizens of Arcata have clearly spoken that they want the McKinley statue moved from the center of the Arcata Plaza,” Winkler said. “My highest priority has always been for the citizens of Arcata to directly make that decision. I will support the EIR to remove the statue as a feature of the Arcata Plaza. I would like the council and the City of Arcata to work

ARCATA – The City of Arcata last week hired San Diego Police Dept. veteran Brian Ahearn as the Arcata Police Department’s new Chief of Police. His contract was approved in a special Friday meeting of the City Council.

Under terms of the contract, Ahearn will serve as chief through at least Nov. 6, 2020. The contract will automatically be extended one year barring some dealbreaking problem. Ahearn’s initial base salary will be $99,792.31, plus benefits.

City Manager Karen Diemer told the council that Ahearn’s hiring followed an extensive recruitment and vetting process. That included additional investigation of allegations of abusive behavior and a hostile work environment lodged in a 2015 lawsuit against the San Diego Police Dept. The lawsuit was dismissed in 2017.

Report: remove 101 eucalyptus stand

Daniel Mintz
MAD RIVER UNION

BRACUTT – The towering stand of eucalyptus trees along U.S. Highway 101 between Arcata and Eureka is iconic and beloved by many residents. But a certified master arborist has told the Humboldt County Board of Supervisors that the trees in the northern segment of the stand are rotting from within, exist in inhospitable saline conditions and should be removed to avoid failure that could threaten lives and property.

An evaluation of the segment of the stand that would skirt the Humboldt Bay Trail was presented to supervisors at their Nov. 6 meeting.

The $12,000 report stems from the board’s approval of the environmental review for development of the center section of the Arcata to Eureka Humboldt Bay Trail. The development plan for the 4.2-mile trail segment includes the removal of 200 eucalyptus trees – about 40 percent of the 1.25-mile line of trees – to avoid limb failures that could endanger trail users.

Torrey Young, a consulting arborist with the Castro Valley-based Dryad LLC company, evaluated the northern stand of trees and said that

David LaRue, who co-authored the petition that resulted in Measure M, called out some of the opponents. “I am personally disappointed in the outcome,” he said. “But I am gratified that the people of Arcata were able to have a voice in the decision. It was shameful the way some city councilmembers fought so hard to deny the people a voice in this decision. I look forward to [statue opponent] Fhyre Phoenix fulfilling his commitment to raise private funds to pay for the statue’s removal.”

CERT training will help Humboldt survive the next disaster

Linda Nellist
CERT COALITION LEAD INSTRUCTOR
What is CERT?

CERT stands for Community Emergency Response Team. Currently, Humboldt County has 9 CERT teams, with several new ones being formed.

All CERT volunteers have been trained in basic disaster response skills, such as fire safety, light search and rescue, team organization, and disaster medical operations.

They have learned how to prepare for local emergencies, what supplies should be kept at home and, most importantly, how to protect themselves and their families in an emergency.

Why take CERT Training?
CERT training is like paying for car insurance. You might never need it. In fact, you hope you won't. But if the occasion arises, having the CERT training, just like having car insurance, means you're as ready as you can be to help yourself, your family, your workplace, and your neighborhood in an emergency situation.

It is important to know that, if a major disaster occurs, first responders, such as fire, law enforcement, and paramedics, may not be able to respond to every call immediately.

You must be prepared to take care of yourself and your family and be able to help your neighbors or coworkers.

As a CERT grad, you will be far more equipped to deal with emergency circumstances without needing aid from outside sources.

CERT class participants receive 23 hours of initial training, which is usually taught over three days: Friday afternoon and early evening and all day Saturday and Sunday. The classes are usually offered twice a year.

Students graduating from the CERT course receive a donation of safety equipment from California Volunteers, and course fees are often covered by grant funding.

What is covered in CERT training?
• Personal and family preparedness
• Earthquake preparation
• Tsunami, wildfire, flood hazards

- Disaster preparedness
- Team organization
- Disaster psychology
- Medical operations
- Medical triage
- Damage assessment
- Fire suppression
- Fire chemistry
- Hazardous materials
- Utility control
- Light search and rescue
- Full disaster simulation drill

How can I sign up to be notified about upcoming CERT training?

The next CERT course is tentatively scheduled for late February 2019. To be added to the interest list, send an email with your name and phone contact to Linda.Nellist@humboldt.edu.

Bank heist flops

EUREKA POLICE DEPT.
EUREKA – On Nov. 7 at about 9:56 a.m., the Eureka Police Department dispatch center received a 911 call from a bank at the 300 block of F Street, regarding a robbery that had just occurred.

It was reported that the suspect presented the teller a note demanding money. The teller complied and handed the suspect an envelope containing U.S. currency. The suspect then exited the bank.

Officers responded and immediately located the suspect outside of the entry/exit doors of the Bank.

The suspect, identified as Tracey Dontaye Drew, 31, was detained without incident.

Drew was found to be in possession of the envelope of U.S. currency taken during the robbery. He was positively identified as the suspect by bank staff.

Drew was ultimately booked into the Humboldt County Correctional Facility on charges of robbery and is being held on $50,000 bail.

This is an ongoing investigation and further details will be released if appropriate.

Firefighters, Marine Corps league team up for Toys for Tots

MCKINLEYVILLE – “Because every child deserves a little Christmas.”

The Arcata Professional Firefighters Local 4981 and the Arcata Fire Protection District are once again teaming up with the U.S. Marine Corp League for the annual Toys for Tots Drive.

Annually, the U.S. Marine Corp League's Toys for Tots Program helps give children, who may not otherwise receive one, a toy for the holidays.

The Arcata Professional Firefighters Union Local 4981 and the Arcata Fire Family invites the public to assist in the collection of toys for the 2018 Toys for Tots Drive.

Generously, the residents of the Arcata Fire District have made the collection drive one of the largest in the local area, and this year the goal is to exceed the previous year's collections.

A new, unwrapped, toy can be dropped off at any of the following locations:

- Arcata Fire Station, 631 Ninth St., Arcata
- Mad River Fire Station, 3235 Janes Road, Arcata
- McKinleyville Fire Station 2149 Central Ave, McKinleyville
- Kmart, 1500 Anna Sparks Way, McKinleyville
- Rocking Horse, 791 Eighth St., Arcata

Firefighters will also be collecting toys at the Sunrise Rotary's, Taste of the Holidays, this Thursday, Nov. 15 from 5 to 8 p.m.

The Arcata Fire Protection District and the Arcata Professional Firefighters Union Local 4981 appreciate the community's ongoing support in making this annual Toys for Tots Drive a success!

Another downtown stabbing

ARCATA POLICE DEPT.
ARCATA – On Friday, Nov. 9 at about 2:08 a.m. Arcata Police Department officers were dispatched to a disturbance in the 800 Block of J Street in Arcata.

The officers located a 22-year-old male that had been stabbed during an altercation.

Officers learned the victim and his friend had been skateboarding with three other men they had just met.

For undetermined reasons, a physical fight occurred between the men, resulting in one man being stabbed. The suspect immediately fled the area.

The victim was transported to Mad River Community Hospital where he received treatment for a non-life-threatening stab wound.

The suspect is described as a white male in his twenties wearing dark clothing.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Arcata Police Department at (707) 822-2428.

Eel River Bridge suicide drama resolved with no one injured

CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY PATROL
HUMBOLDT – On Nov. 4, just after 10 p.m., California Highway Patrol's Humboldt Communications Center (HCC) received a report of a possible suicidal subject traveling south from Eureka.

At 10:27 p.m., the suicidal subject called dispatch and indicated that he intended to commit suicide but was not going to involve other drivers.

A short time later, CHP dispatchers received reports of a vehicle stopped on the Eel River Bridge, between Rio Dell and Fortuna, with no lights on.

Just after 11 p.m., two Garberville CHP officers arrived on scene and observed a subject standing near the bridge railing, next to a vehicle.

A crisis negotiator from the Humboldt County Sheriff's Office was requested and Rio Dell Volunteer Fire Department staged in a safe location near the scene.

The officers approached the subject to make contact and check on his well-being.

As they approached, he removed a large knife from a sheath and stated he wanted the officers to shoot him. The officers engaged him in conversation in an attempt to calm him.

Humboldt CHP officers arrived on scene to assist and as officers spoke with the subject, he made additional statements that he wanted officers to shoot him.

At one point, the subject began walking towards the driver door of his vehicle and the officers instructed him to move away, fearing for his safety and the safety of the public if he became mobile again.

The subject stated that if he got back in the car, he believed officers would have no choice but to shoot him.

While continuing to give verbal commands to the subject not to get back in his vehicle, he refused to comply and continued approaching the open car door.

An electronic control device (taser) was deployed successfully, causing the subject to drop the knife and fall to the ground.

He was safely detained and emergency medical personnel were allowed to respond and provide treatment.

The subject was subsequently transported to Semperviren's Psychiatric Health Facility in Eureka for treatment. One CHP officer received minor injuries during the incident and was treated and released at the scene.

McK woman arrested with oodles of cannabis in Ohio

MAD RIVER UNION
OLMSTEAD FALLS, OHIO – A McKinleyville woman was arrested last week by the Ohio State Highway Patrol in a rental truck loaded with 510 pounds of cannabis estimated to be worth more than $1.3 million.

Keryl J. Lopez, 48, was driving a 2018 Penske truck when she was stopped by troopers Monday afternoon, Nov. 5, “for speed and marked lanes violations on the Ohio Turnpike,” according to a press release.

Police said there were “criminal indicators” during the traffic stop and a drug-sniffing dog detected possible illegal substances in the vehicle. Probable cause led to a search of the truck, which yielded the tidily boxed cannabis haul.

Lopez was arrested and taken to the Strongsville City Jail. She was charged with possession and trafficking in marijuana, first-degree felonies which could result in 22 years in prison and up to a $40,000 fine, according to the press release.

Diemer said that along with being cleared by the SDPD, a third-party investigator hired by the City of Arcata also found the allegations groundless. Diemer noted that police are commonly subjected to spurious accusations.

Sunday morning, Ahearn hit the ground running by taking a walk with through Valley West with area residents. It's one of a series of neighborhood walks planned by the new chief as part of an immersive familiarization with his new town.

Ahearn gave his phone number to the residents, urging them to call him. “If you want to tell me what we're doing really good, I'll take that,” he said. “But I really want to know what we're not doing, because those are action items.”

He pledged to address the problems with chronic petty crime in Valley West, but said progress would likely be gradual.

THE WILD, WILD WEST Police Chief Brian Ahearn began his Arcata-wide listening tour by meeting with Valley West residents Sunday morning. KLH | UNION

“What you'll probably hear from me is, ‘What's your highest priority?’” He told the dozen or so residents who had gathered for the walk. “Let's start to chip away at that.”

He said that his 31 years as a police officer have been heavily involved with community policing, and he is gratified to see Arcata has a strong commitment to that.

“Why Valley West?” he asked rhetorically. “I did a lot of preparation to get here, to serve all of you. One of the things I kept seeing about Arcata is how Valley West is not being policed as well as it should be. And so I thought, there's no better place to start these community walks than here.”

I'd probably be a park ranger, an interpretative forest ranger. If I had to stick to a town job, I'd probably be a grade school teacher.

I always thought it'd be fun to be a Blackjack dealer. You meet the most interesting people when you're sitting at a Blackjack table, many people are traveling from other places and it is fun to strike up a conversation.

When I was younger, I used to want to work at a video store and so when I got the job at La Dolce, I thought "Yay! My dream job!" But I'm also a projectionist at the Minor – it's nice to keep a foot in the movie scene here.

I would like to work for the Department of Fish and Wildlife as a Game Warden. I could not think of a more rewarding job that allows you to be out in the Redwoods on a daily basis while getting to protect the woods and its inhabitants.

A clear decision by the people solves an age-old Arcata problem

However you voted on Measure M, there is reason to rejoice in the decision made by Arcata voters. It was a clear decision, with an overwhelming mandate to act. It wasn't at all close, so there is no disputing that the voters spoke loud, clear and decisively, ending a long-running controversy that sowed pain and division in our town. It might be wise to look back on the run-up to the election and see what we can learn from it. One lesson is that democracy works. As we previously editorialized, a decision of this historical magnitude was one for the people, not politicians, to decide. The initiative process offered redress, and was pursued with admirable vigor – despite the verbal harassment and denigration its sponsors unjustly endured (ironically, in the name of democracy). So effective was their petition drive that they gathered nearly as many signatures for Measure M as the final pro-statue vote.

It turns out that the petition backers were the statue opponents' best allies. Without Measure M, we'd never have known what citizens truly want. There would always have been a question as to whether the council's peremptory decision reflected the will of the people. Now we know that it certainly, overwhelmingly does. We also know, despite the statue opponents claims to the contrary, that the people of Arcata are fair-minded enough to make an objective decision not based on simple tradition, or white privilege, or outright racism.

Speaking of racism, white supremacy and the other terms that were so recklessly thrown around during the campaign, did any of that name-calling influence your vote? Did you vote one way or another because someone called someone else a terrible name? Didn't think so. So maybe tactics like that aren't helpful to the dialogue. The fact is, there are committed racists and white supremacists, and they aren't the fair-minded people of Arcata. Devaluing those grave terms with unfounded accusations doesn't help us deal with the actual, practicing bigots of our land who are presently emboldened by our president's dogwhistle calls for "nationalism." Now, Arcata can ease into the era of unity and healing promised by the statue opponents. Along with that, rather than play the president's game of emphasizing divisions, let's take a deep breath and act rather than react: let's find the abundant common ground and shared values we all hold, and work outward from there.

Dysfunction bedevils our streets and dooms our dialogue

Arcata's a hot mess
We are visiting Arcata overnight as we tour areas of California. The Hampton Inn suggested we have dinner in the Plaza area. We were shocked to experience the amount of people drinking alcohol, smoking weed in their vans, begging for money, and just loitering. We did not remain in the area. The area surrounding the Hampton Inn is not much different. What is going on? Do you or the town council find this situation acceptable? Do you and the local businesses think that this could be good for the city? My wife and I consider ourselves liberals – but your city is a hot mess.

Bob Franklin

Reason at a higher level
Divide and conquer is the rule of the day. McKinley should go, no he should stay. Trump is a moron, no he is making America great again. Republicans distrust Democrats, Democrats vilify Republicans. African-Americans are wary of white people and vice versa. There is no true discourse if the topic is: immigration, climate change, cannabis, the death penalty, gays, Native Americans, Asians, Africans, Hispanics, Jews, Muslims, etc. And what is with the Clintons being responsible for all that weird stuff? Can we please just let others have their beliefs and let it go? What we think of as our own values – those beliefs we hold dear as we know that they are the truth – are not the only or necessarily the best values in existence. There are many ways of being in this world and to dismiss differing ones from our own is to lose a part of our common humanity. Everything has value, everyone has value. Treasure them, honor them and you may discover that what you may possess just another opinion. There are other people who don't agree with you. Get over it. St. Thomas Aquinas gave some advice that went something like this: If you don't agree with someone and would like them to hear your viewpoint, then walk over to where they are, take them by the hand and lead them back to where you started from. In other words, have a conversation with them. This works a lot better than yelling, pointing fingers, blaming others and disrupting meetings. That doesn't convince anyone to come over to your side. You are not morally superior to everyone else. You are not the smartest person in the room. You just have another viewpoint. Which could be a good one, but not the right one for everyone else. Folks, let us just take a breath and respect those different opinions, beliefs, judgments, attitudes or whatever you need to call it. We are all in the same boat. It would be nice if we could row together and make some kind of progress toward a goal worthy our efforts. Will Rogers said a few truths: "Never miss a good chance to shut up." plus "We are all ignorant, just in different subjects." I do not need to have the last word on this subject, but then who does?

Arcata Main Street thanks
Arcata Main Street thanks all those who came our Halloween Trick or Treat in Downtown Arcata on Wednesday, October 31, 2018. The Plaza and the surrounding areas were filled with Trick or Treaters and their parents all in costumes from 4-6 pm. The Downtown merchants passed out lots of candy and other goodies. The Marching Lumberjacks started the event off at 4 pm, leading a group to the Plaza. Radio station KRFH, 105.1, from HSU played music on the Plaza. The Giant Puppets from Arcata Playhouse and Ross, the Bubble Ambassador, entertained the crowd. The HSU Women's Softball Team helped us with traffic control. Eva Brena and her hip-hop students wowed everyone with their Thriller routine. North Bay Rotaract held their Second Annual Harvest Festival not only with games on the Plaza, but Tractor Rides around the Plaza. The tractor, donated by Pape Machinery, was driven by Arcata City Councilman Brett Watson. Dustin Littlefield of Arcata Sunrise Rotary donated the trailer. We also want to thank the Arcata Volunteer Police Patrol, the Arcata Fire Department, and the Arcata Police Department for all their help and participation. Again, thank you again to everyone involved.

Meet the five division directors of the Arcata Fire District Board

The third Tuesday evening of every month you will find five people with differing backgrounds and experience serving on the Arcata Fire District Board. In conjunction with Fire Chief, they look at budget items, emergency equipment needs, and ways of educating the public around emergencies. The District was initially formed in the 1940s to address fire responses outside of the Arcata city limits. Today, the boundaries include all of the City of Arcata, McKinleyville north to Clam Beach, Manila, up Fickle Hill, Bayside, and south to Indianola Cutoff. The District is broken into five Divisions, each with a board member elected by the people of that Division. Board members receive no pay for their service and serve in four year terms. The members are; Division 1; Hiller Road to Clam Beach (McKinleyville) – Rene Campbell, serves as President, serving since Feb. 22, 2017. Rene and her husband moved to McKinleyville in 2000, where they raised two sons. Rene currently works in the business office of a local school district; prior to this position she worked in banking for 25 years. Division 2; North Bank Road to Hiller (McKinleyville) – Nicole Johnson, member, serving since June 19, 2018. Nicole has 16 years of banking experience. Nicole and her husband have one daughter. She comes from a family with several firefighters serving in California and Nevada and her service here makes them very proud. Division 3; Arcata Bottom to Warren Creek (Arcata) – Randy Mendoza – Vice President, serving since May 16, 2017. Randy has been a resident of Arcata since 1978. Randy and his wife have two daughters. He has worked in various positions, such as Chief of Police and City Manager for the City of Arcata from 1978 until 2014. Division 4; Greater Downtown Arcata area (Arcata) – Elena David, member, serving since Jan. 8, 2004. Elena started her career in banking in 1961 at Bank of America, and retired in 2004. Elena is involved as a volunteer with the Arcata Police Department and Soroptimist International. Elena has two grown children, three granddaughters and two great grandsons. Division 5; Manila, Fickle Hill and Bayside (Arcata) – David Rosen, member, serving since June 19, 2018. David's professional background is financial management of non-profit organizations involved in social and government services. David and his wife have three grown children. Responses in October

Council OK's gun storage ord

MAD RIVER UNION
ARCATA – The Arcata City Council last week approved a new firearms storage ordinance on a 4–1 vote, with Councilmember Susan Ornelas dissenting.

The ordinance requires owners of firearms to either store them in a locked container and have them disabled with a trigger lock, or, when at home, carry the weapons on their person or keep them “within close proximity thereto that the individual can readily retrieve and use the firearm as if carried on the person.”

The rationale for the ordinance involves studies and statistics showing association between unsecured firearms and accidental shootings, suicides and gun thefts.

Opponents, none of whom spoke at last week’s meeting, claimed that the storage requirement would reduce firearms owners’ ability to defend their families in the event of a home invasion or other crime.

But the ordinance claims “wide consensus among medical professionals, police chiefs, gun control advocates and gun rights groups” the safety measures reduce injury and death.

A Christmas Story, The Musical premiered on Broadway in 2012 and was hailed by the Associated Press as “a joyous Christmas miracle.”

The New York Times wrote, “I was dazzled. You’d have to have a Grinch-sized heart not to feel a smile spreading across your face.”

The musical was nominated for three Tony Awards including Best New Musical, Best Original Score and Best Book of a Musical.

The cast of A Christmas Story, The Musical will feature James Buschmann (Jean), Jorey C. McComas (the Old Man), Kaden Mangrum (Randy), Shaelan Salas-Rich (Mother) and Paul VandenBranden (Ralphie).

Seaside village awaits results

Last week’s election left the composition of Trinidad City Council uncertain until absentee ballots are counted. There were six candidates for three positions.

Leading the vote count is Mayor Susan Rotwein. However, votes for incumbents Jim Baker, Dwight Miller and challenger Tom Davies are too close to call at this writing. The County election office will certify election results as soon as possible.

Meantime, the regular Trinidad City Council meeting will take place today, Nov. 14 at 6 p.m. in Trinidad Town Hall with Susan Rotwein, Jack West, Steve Ladwig, Jim Baker and Dwight Miller in their current positions.

City Clerk Gabriel Adams reminds Trinidad residents that Trinidad Planning Commission places are available. Contact him at cityclerk@trinidad.ca.gov for information.

McKinleyville Alliance for Racial Equity hosts film night

MCKINLEYVILLE ALLIANCE FOR RACIAL EQUITY

MCKINLEYVILLE – The McKinleyville Alliance for Racial Equity (MARE) will host a film night and group discussion Thursday, Nov. 15 at 6 to 8 p.m. at Grace Good Shepherd Church, 1450 Hiller Rd., McKinleyville. The event is free and open to the public.

Attendees will watch The Power of Illusion Part 3: The House We Live In, then discuss the film.

“We are committed to a community conversation about race and racial equity in our community. This event is part of our ongoing effort to make everyone feel welcome and safe in McKinleyville,” said MARE spokesperson Holly Scaglione.

MARE formed last year after dozens of community members shared their experiences at a McKinleyville Municipal Advisory Committee meeting.

“Many locals and visitors to our community have unfortunately been the target of racist comments and actions. We want our community to be inclusive and welcoming to everyone. We accept that promoting racial equity is challenging work and a community conversation is only a first step,” Scaglione said.

In addition to film nights and community discussions, MARE plans to sponsor racial equity and leadership trainings next year. “These conversations can be difficult. They have their own vocabulary and require that we accept that we all have some form of racial bias deep inside of us. The good news is that we have some very skilled folks right here in our community that can facilitate these discussions,” Scaglione said.

TASTE OF THE HOLIDAYS Join the Rotary Club of Arcata Sunrise at its annual Taste of the Holidays on Thursday, Nov. 15 from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Arcata Community Center, 321 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Parkway in Arcata. Tickets are $30 and available at arcatasunrise.org. Bring a glass from a prior year’s Taste of the Holidays and receive an extra drink ticket!. There will also have a Toys for Tots drop-off table, hosted by the Arcata Fire District, where attendees can drop off an unwrapped gift and receive a raffle ticket for the opportunity to win an amazing gift basket. The Taste of the Holidays is a “tasting” event specifically showcasing local food and beverage producers and their products. All the money raised by this event goes right back into the local community.

OBITUARY

Maureen Evelyn Rose, 1948-2018

Maureen Evelyn Rose (nee Silvia) passed away on Saturday, Oct. 27, 2018 at 69 years of age in Arcata, Calif. after sustaining internal injuries from a fall. She was just a few weeks shy of her 70th birthday, a milestone we all coveted.

She was born in Massachusetts on Nov.16, 1948 to Frank and Jeanette Silvia, and was the youngest of four siblings: Dianne, Ron, Gary and Dan – who sadly all preceded her in death.

She is survived by her daughter, Truth Doyle and son-in-law Britt Doyle, of Tiburon, Calif.; her son, Justin Wirthman and daughter-in-law, Selene Wirthman, of McKinleyville, Calif.; her nephew, Victor Cross, of Santa Cruz, Calif.; her niece Melody Hatch, of Tulalip, Wash., and her grandchildren Julian, Indy, Preston, Harry and Britt, whom she loved more than anything. Besides her family, she left behind her very beloved “Beast-Child,” Meggles as well as countless friends along her journey.

She founded the Eternal Art Glass Studio in the 1980s as a venue for her stained glass artwork, which later became the Eternal Art Community Center in McKinleyville, a beloved hub for artists of all sorts.

One of her most noteworthy projects was the Holy Trinity Church in Trinidad, where she created all the stained-glass windows that remain there today. It will always be one of our family’s most treasured memories.

She was a resident student at the Heartwood Institute in Garberville, Calif., where she studied the arts of massage and Reiki, among other healing crafts. As a result, her hands were considered magical by many.

Those who knew her will remember her years on dialysis to treat the hereditary polycystic kidney disease that ultimately claimed her siblings and her mother. We also remember and celebrate her kidney transplant in 2010 that gave her the freedom to live freely again.

Beyond doubt, her dogma was always apparent. She believed in aliens, karma and chem trails, and she made a hell of a case for all!

A celebration of her life will take place on Sunday, Nov. 18 at Merryman’s Beach House on Moonstone Beach in Trinidad, Calif. from 2 to 5 p.m. All are welcome.

We would like to give special thanks to the amazing staff at the Mad River ICU and Dr. Tong, for really caring. She left this world in good hands and for that, we are so very grateful.

Gloves and tools provided.

Contact TCLT Executive Director Ben Morehead at (707) 677-2501 for more information or stop by the TCLT Simmons Gallery behind Trinidad Library.

Speaking of volunteers, kudos to Jan Van Alten and the Trinidad Museum Garden Crew.

Trinidad Museum Native Plant Garden Chairman Jill Mefford thanks all of the volunteers who regularly donate their time and tireless expertise in nurturing the gardens around the museum. Ingrid Bailey, Claire Perri-cell, Laraine Cook, Rebecca Leuck, Carl and Maisa Kalb, Duane Mefford and Virginia Waters, along with Jill, all contribute dozens of hours each year to make the garden flourish.

Young and strong Jan Van Alten is the latest gardener to expertly mow, prune, weed and nurture. Bees, butterflies, and birds, as well as visiting humans, love the results.

Annual Chamber Meeting

Sunset Restaurant hosted Trinidad Chamber members and guests at a fine pasta buffet dinner last week. President Brian Hiebert (Lost Whale Inn) and Chamber Marketing Director Allie Heemstra gave the annual report on the Trinidad Fish Festival, Trinidad Clam Beach Run, Tastin’ Trinidad, City Council Candidates’ Night and web site work.

The Board of Directors consists of Brian, Brett Shuler, (Shuler Catering), Don Zeman and Joshua Lindsey and John Machado, (both of Emerald Forest). Two more board members are sought. Email askchamber@trinidadcalif.com for information on joining the chamber, a vital part of Trinidad’s economic, civic and social life since the 1950s.

Brian and Allie also invited chamber members and guests to the annual Holiday Ball set for Saturday, Dec. 8, at Trinidad Town Hall.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call or visit this Internet Web site, using the file number assigned to this case 2018F018. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.

More than a grocer, your neighbor since 1971!

Take a fuzzy friend home for the holidays

The frosty mornings and early sunsets are a good reminder that we really are heading for winter, despite the lovely sunny afternoons. Preparations for winter at the shelter include a nice new load of pine chips in our play yard (because it really will rain someday), gathering donations for the annual Holiday Open House, and a “Home for the Holidays” adoption promotion.

The Open House will be held on Saturday, Dec. 8. This fun event includes shelter tours, refreshments, memory stars and a spectacular array of items for a Dutch raffle and a silent auction. All of the proceeds benefit the shelter’s Emergency Medical Fund, administered by Friends for Life Animal Rescue. Donations are currently being accepted for the raffle and auction. Please contact Patty at the shelter at (707) 840-9132 for more information or to donate.

The “Home for the Holidays” promotion is a way to encourage adoption of a shelter dog or cat this fall. We have so many great pets that would be so much happier in a home of their own instead of spending the holidays in a noisy kennel! We have had quite a few of our dogs go home with volunteers for a night or two of R & R. Those experiences give us lots of information about our dogs, and we are happy to share that with interested adopters. Please feel free to contact us at redwoopalsrescue@gmail if you would like assistance finding a pet that matches your home and lifestyle. From now until Thanksgiving, all dogs are $80 and all cats are $60, except for the senior pets who are always

One of the shelter dogs that would love to join your pack is the handsome Max, a year-and-a-half-old German Shepherd mix. Max would be thrilled to live in a home where he got to spend a little more time with his people than the hour or so that he spends with a volunteer each day. He is a gentle dog that is very appreciative of attention turned his way. Max is still young and inexperienced but is eager to learn. He can be motivated by treats or praise. Max has been fine around other dogs. He is a larger dog, more tall and lean than stout. Max has a very sweet face and a happy to ignore everything going on around him, but is also quite dog friendly and will play with any other playful pup. Tutter walks easily on the leash and appears to be housebroken. In fact, the only thing Tutter does that doesn’t thrill us is that he tends to poop in the middle of the road! Could nice golden coat. He is neutered, microchipped and current on his vaccinations and is available now at the shelter at 980 Locoming Ave. in McKinleyville.

Redwood Pals would like to see their dogs find a home for the holidays also. One fun dog that we have been working with is this hard-to-photograph boy, Tutter. Tutter is listed as a Shepherd mix, though once again. It is a little hard to tell.

Tutter has a thick, though short, black coat, upright ears, brown socks, and is a nice size, about 50-55 pounds. Tutter is quite the laid back boy. He is be that he doesn’t like the road side where we walk – who knows? Anyway, it’s a small offense and he’s really a great dog. Like Nugget who was featured here last week, Tutter’s previous owners allowed him to run free with other neighborhood dogs and they didn’t always make the best decisions.

Both dogs are absolutely great on their own, and we do encourage engaged pet ownership which doesn’t include dogs running untended. If you would like to meet this cute dog, please contact us at redwoodpalsrescue@gmail.com or call (707) 839-9692.
